

GOD IN THE PSALMS

A photograph of an open Bible with its pages filled with dense, dark text. The central gutter of the Bible is brightly lit, with a warm, golden glow that radiates outwards in all directions, resembling the sun or a bright light source. The background is a deep, dark purple or black, which makes the central light and the text stand out sharply. The overall effect is one of divine illumination and spiritual depth.

PLAINLY STATED

- Glory, majesty, honor (19:1; 29:1-3, 9; 115:1).
- Strength and power (23:1; 65:6; 145:11-12).
- Righteous (11:7; 119:137; 145:17).
- Holy (22:3; 99:3, 5; 145:21).
- Faithful and true (89:8; 92:2; 143:1).
- Angry (6:1; 90:11; 7:6; 56:7; 30:5; 145:8).

IMPLIED CHARACTERISTICS

- He is real.
- He is listening.
- He is patient with our frustration.
