1. Who was Aristarchus? Where have we seen h	nım	perore.
--	-----	---------

2. How did Julius, the centurion in charge of Paul, treat Paul during the journey?

3. What was "the Fast," and about what time of year did it occur?

4. What word of caution did Paul have for the centurion, the ship's helmsman, and its owner?

5. Did Paul have any reason to think that he personally was in danger? Why or why not?

6. Thought Question When Paul made his prediction, was he speaking by inspiration?

7.	After enduring the tempest for days, when the men had finally given up hope, what hope was
	Paul able to give them? On what condition?

8. What additional condition did Paul reveal when the sailors attempted to escape on the skiff?

9. What finally convinced the men to break their days-long fast?

10. Aside from the shipwreck, what additional threat to Paul's life arose, and who intervened to save him?

11. Research Question Counting this occasion, how many times (that we know of) has Paul been shipwrecked in his life up to this point?
