

...n't have ... nothing as
... suppose I give eve ... ing I have to pro
... eople. And suppose I give my body to be
... burned. If I don't have love, I get nothing
... at all. Love is patient. Love is kind. It
... does not want what belongs to others. It does
... not
LOVE DEFINED
... track of other people's wrongs. Lo
... py with evil. But it is full
... truth is spoken. It always
... rary trusts. It always
... up. Love never
... rans away
... not!

FRIENDSHIP

- The foundations of friendship are in common interests (2 Cor. 6:14-17).
- The common loyalties we share, leads to a loyalty to each other (Prov. 18:24).
- It is among the greatest degrees of love to find one who shares your deepest interests and affections (2 Sam. 1:26).
- We cannot be friends of equal depth with everyone (Jn. 19:26; 21:21-23).
- Our friendship with God, is not normal friendship (Jn. 15:14-15).

ROMANCE

- In its noblest sense, this is the love that is most fully dedicated to another (Gen. 2:24).
- Many look at this love and see the sexual aspect as the primary component but that is not so (1 Cor. 7).
- This is love that utterly yields (Eph. 5:22-33).

CHARITY

- This is where love really gets to work (1 Cor. 13:4-7).
- Loving God first humbles us and makes us ready for the work of loving others (Eph. 4:32).
- The love we practice should prepare us to stand face to face with love Himself (1 Jn. 4:8).

