

THE Law
OF MOSES

Then Moses said, “Consecrate yourselves today to the LORD, that He may bestow on you a blessing this day, for every man has opposed his son and his brother.”

Exodus 32:29 NKJV

Then Moses said, “Dedicate yourselves today to the LORD—for every man has been against his son and against his brother—in order that He may bestow a blessing upon you today.”

Exodus 32:29 NASB

Moses said, “You have been consecrated today for the LORD, for each of you was against his son or against his brother, so he has given a blessing to you today.”

Exodus 32:29 NET

Afterward Moses said, “Today you have been dedicated to the LORD, since each man went against his son and his brother. Therefore you have brought a blessing on yourselves today.”

Exodus 32:29 HCSB

The image shows two stone tablets, likely representing the Ten Commandments, resting on a surface. The tablets are made of a reddish-brown stone and have Hebrew text engraved on them. The text is arranged in vertical columns. The top tablet is slightly larger and has a small symbol at the top. The bottom tablet is smaller and has a small symbol at the top. The background is a textured, light brown surface.

And Moses said, “Today you have been ordained for the service of the LORD, each one at the cost of his son and of his brother, so that he might bestow a blessing upon you this day.”

Exodus 32:29 ESV

Moses said, “Today you have ordained yourselves for the service of the LORD, each one at the cost of a son or a brother, and so have brought a blessing on yourselves this day.”

Exodus 32:29 NRSV
